Our Three Rivers

The West Fork River

The West Fork River rises in southern Upshur County near the community of Rock Cave and flows generally northward through Lewis, Harrison and Marion counties, through the towns of Weston, Clarksburg, Shinnston, Enterprise, Worthington, Monongah and Fair-

The Tygart Valley River

The Tygart Valley River rises in the Allegheny Mountains in Pocahontas County and flows generally north-northwestwardly through Randolph, Barbour, Taylor and Marion counties, past the towns of Huttonsville, Mill Creek, Beverly, Elkins, Junior, Belington, Philippi, Arden and Grafton to Fairmont, where it joins the West Fork River to form the Monongahela River.

The Monongahela River

The Monongahela River is a river on the Allegheny Plateau in West Virginia and Pennsylvania in the United States. The Monongahela is formed by the confluence of the West Fork River and the Tygart Valley River at Fairmont, West Virginia.
